PMI Honolulu Hawaiʻi Chapter
2018 Annual Awards

Aman Kaur - PMOTY
Believes the key to success is having a strong foundation and life-long learning…

• B.Sc. in Corporate Financial Management
• M.B.A. in General Management & Marketing
• A journey of adding tools to her toolkit; progressively added skills from previous jobs to help in her role as project manager
  – Budget management through education and work at Clorox
  – Communication and company culture through Corporate Communications role
  – Business analysis through Business Analyst role
  – Project management through work and PMP certification
  – Continuously looks for opportunities to learn from other leaders Proven track record for...

- Work on some of the high-visibility and complex projects in the company
  - BA for Hangar Move and Facilities readiness
  - PM for A321neo EIS Readiness
  - PM for AO Workforce management (Planning phase)
  - PM for 787 Induction
- Ability to work with stakeholders who may not agree with project management approach or tools
- Passion for supporting PMO department and team members
  - Buddy program
  - Process improvement efforts
Unique project management style

- Diligent planning WITH team involvement
- Demonstrating the value of project management to team members
- Ability to remain flexible and negotiate a common path forward
- Clear and timely communication
- Relationship management focus to build strong project teams
- Leads by example – high expectations of self and team
- Incorporating her cheesy sense of humor!
• Mahalo!